

Waterloo Deaths

ROBERT MCFARLAND
Funeral services for Robert McFarland, 45, of 1529 W. 11th St., will be at 1:30 p.m. tomorrow at the Chapel of Memories West with the Rev. Paul Davis, pastor of First Wesleyan Methodist Church, officiating.

Burial will be in the Garden of Memories. Flag folding ceremonies will be conducted by the Becker-Chapman Post 138 of the American Legion.

Immediate survivors include his widow; three sons, Ricky, 17, Robert Jr., 6, and Timothy, 5; one daughter, Ruth May, 3, and two step daughters, Euala Smith, 16, and Cynthia Smith, 11, all at home.

GUY HOWARD FAY
Word has been received of the death April 28 of Guy Howard Fay at Newhall, Calif., of a heart attack. He was a former Waterloo resident, the family home being at 720 Grant Ave.

Surviving are his widow Eulalia; three sons, Meryl E., Joseph D., and Howard E. Fay; two daughters, Mrs. Evelyn Reininga and Mrs. Helen Jean Pratt; 18 grandchildren, and three brothers, Edward of Cedar Rapids, Elmer, 903 W. Mullan Ave., and Earl of Minneapolis, Minn.

Funeral services were May 1 at Newhall with burial in Memorial Park Eternal Valley cemetery there.

MRS. EFFIE CLEMENTS
Funeral services for Mrs. Effie Clements, 87, of 3107 Falls Ave., who died Wednesday, will be tomorrow at 11 a.m. at Chapel of Memories West. The Rev. Wilbert D. Gough, pastor of First Baptist Church, will officiate. Burial will be in Garden of Memories.

STACY VESPER
Funeral services will be Tuesday afternoon for Stacy Al Vesper, 77, of 701 Hall St., who died at 11:10 a.m. Friday in Allen Memorial Hospital of emphysema.

He was born Feb. 13, 1891, in Lawler, the son of Theodore L. and Hanna Briggs Vesper.

Mr. Vesper was a bricklayer. His first marriage was to Hulda Zieman April 20, 1932, in Nashua. His second marriage was to Cora M. Coonrad June 22, 1958, here.

He was a member of the Concordia Lutheran Church, Veterans of Foreign Wars. He was a veteran of WWI.

Survivors include his widow; one son, Vernon L. Vesper, stationed at Fort Knox, Ky. in the Army; two daughters, Hazel Vesper, 607 Wellington Court, and Mrs. Jerry Weekley, 423 1/2 Florence St.; a stepdaughter, Mrs. Margaret Pohlman, 415 Cherry St.; a sister, Mrs. Charlotte Finch, Winter Haven, Fla.; four grandchildren; four step grandchildren, and one step great granddaughter.

He was preceded in death by his first wife in 1955, his parents, and four sisters.

Funeral services will be at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday in the Concordia Lutheran Church. Friends may call at the Chapel of Memories East after noon today.

MRS. LAURA PAYNE GRIFFIN
Mrs. Laura Payne Griffin, 84, of 326 Carrington Rd., died yesterday at 9 a.m. at the West 3rd St. Nursing Home where she had been for the last five months of complications of a stroke.

She was born Nov. 29, 1883, at Rowley, the daughter of Lester and Lucy King Morse. She married Calvin Payne May 30, 1905, in Independence. He died in 1922.

She then married Lloyd Griffin. They were later separated. She was a member of the Falls Ave. Wesleyan Methodist Church, the Women's Relief Corps, Daughters of Union Veterans, Senior Citizens and the Golden Agers.

She is survived by one son, Roy of Minneapolis; one daughter, Mrs. Lester (Helen) Brown of 236 Carrington Rd.; one sister, Mrs. Dora Dennis of Des Moines; 10 grandchildren and 20 great grandchildren.

Preceding her in death were her parents, first husband, one daughter, one brother and two sisters. Funeral services will be 1:30 p.m. Tuesday at the Falls Ave. Wesleyan Methodist Church.

Friends may call at Parrott & Wood Funeral Home after 1 p.m. today.

MRS. LEONA COUGHRON
Mrs. Leona Coughron, 65, of 429 Morrill, Evansdale, died of a heart attack at Scholz Memorial hospital about 7 p.m. yesterday. Arrangements are pending at the Parrott & Wood Funeral Home.

MISS MARION MARVIN
Word has been received here of the death of Miss Marion Marvin of Napa, Calif., a former Waterloo resident, who died Thursday at a Napa hospital of a stroke.

The body is expected to arrive at the Parrott & Wood Funeral Home tomorrow, where friends may call after noon time Tuesday.

Miss Marvin was a graduate of West High. She was also graduated from the University of Northern Iowa, Cedar Falls.

She was born in Clarksville, the daughter of George and Marion Hood Marvin.

Miss Marvin was preceded in death by her parents and by one brother, Grant of Waterloo. He died in 1966.

CHARLES POTTENBERGER
Services are pending at the Kearns-Dykeman Chapel for Charles Pottenberger, 68, of the County Detention Hospital, who died at 10:45 p.m. last night of a heart attack.

Woman Held In Stabbing Of Her Husband
James Perkins, 25, of 715 Anthony St., was reported in serious condition at Allen Memorial Hospital yesterday, with knife wounds in the chest, abdomen and left upper arm.

Police said Perkins had argued with his wife Maggie Jean, 24, in the parking lot of the Buckle Tavern, 1808 Idaho St.

Perkins reportedly hit her and she subsequently knifed him, police said. He was hospitalized at 1:10 a.m. and is in the intensive care ward.

Mrs. Perkins was arrested and was being held pending reading in junior and senior high further investigation yesterday.

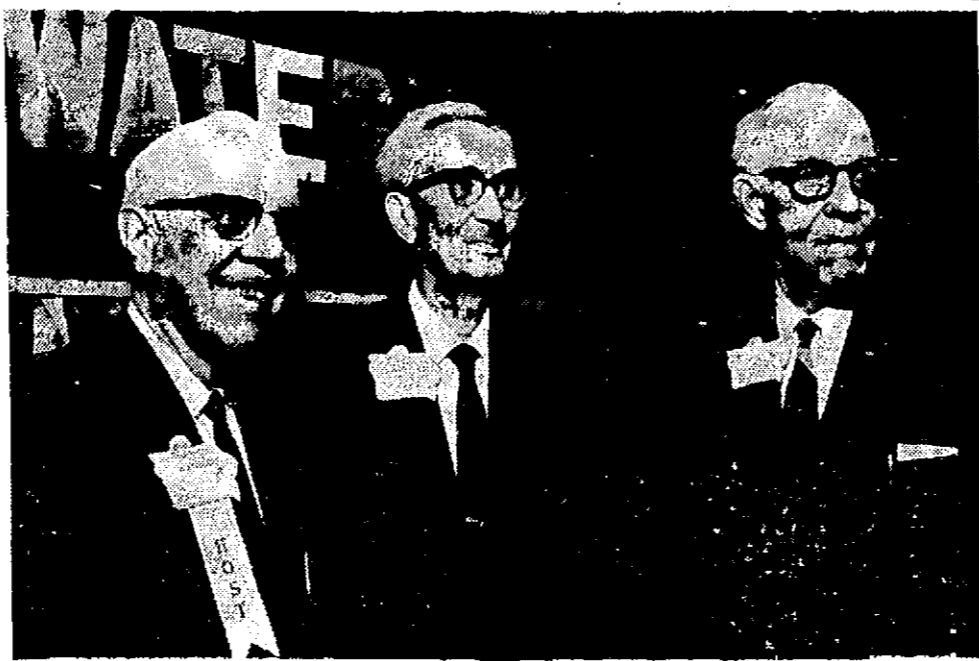

East High Teacher Chosen For Institute
Mrs. Charleen Gallatin, an English teacher at East High School has been selected to attend the NEA Institute for Advanced Study in Reading at the University of Northern Iowa this summer.

Mrs. Gallatin is one of 30 participants selected from nine midwest states to attend the eight week institute.

The institute, sponsored by the U.S. Office of Education and the Department of Education at UNI, provides course work in reading, linguistics, psychology and literature for teachers of and was being held pending reading in junior and senior high further investigation yesterday.

42nd State Convention Of Barbers Opens Today

Expect 400 For Meeting In Waterloo

CONVENTION CHAT — These members of the High Twelve clubs enjoy a visit during the state convention of the organization at Holiday Inn yesterday. From left to right, Dewey Butterfield, 726 Home Park Blvd., Newell Guernsey of Sioux City, the state president, and A. N. Diehl, 2424 Ansbrough Ave., a past president.

Iowa's High 12 Clubs Here

"Our American Heritage," was the topic of the principal address given last night at the state convention of the Iowa High Twelve Clubs.

Dr. Voorhees, High 12 Speaker

Rowe, Severin Speakers

The day's banquet will come at 6:30 p.m. with J. V. Rowe as toastmaster and William Severin, columnist of the Waterloo Daily Courier, and Paul Sparaco as speakers.

The second day's program will open at 10 a.m. Reports of committees will be followed by an address by Clyde L. Kenyon, director of the barber division of Iowa.

The opening day's ladies program gets under way at 2:30 p.m. with hair care by Pilze's and make-up artistry by the Merle Norman Studio being opening features. The banquet is slated for 6:30 p.m.

A tour is on the ladies agenda for 9:45 a.m. tomorrow.

Bound Over for Breaking of Tavern Window

Two of the persons involved in the vandalism of April 9 in Waterloo, when numbers of windows were broken and general unrest prevailed for a time following the death of Dr. Martin Luther King, appeared in municipal court Thursday.

Bruce Edward Burt, 18, of 218 Sumner St., waived preliminary hearing and was bound over to district court for trial on charges of malicious injury to property. Burt was charged with knocking out a glass window at Babo's Tap, 121 E. 5th St.

The case against Orrington Spencer Gardner, 22, of 915 Sumner St., was continued to June 28. Gardner is charged with malicious injury to a building, knocking out the plate glass window in Richfield Clothes, 107 E. 4th St. and is under $500 bond.

The convention was welcomed by Mayor Lloyd L. Turner with a response by James L. Turnbull, Sioux Falls, S. D., first vice president. Newell F. Guernsey, president of the Iowa State Association introduced officers and guests, followed by reading of minutes and roll call.

The meeting was called to order by John L. Boots, president of the Waterloo Club, host to the Iowa Association of High Twelve Clubs at the convention.

The convention was welcomed by Mayor Lloyd L. Turner with a response by James L. Turnbull, Sioux Falls, S. D., first vice president. Newell F. Guernsey, president of the Iowa State Association introduced officers and guests, followed by reading of minutes and roll call.

The convention was welcomed by Mayor Lloyd L. Turner with a response by James L. Turnbull, Sioux Falls, S. D., first vice president. Newell F. Guernsey, president of the Iowa State Association introduced officers and guests, followed by reading of minutes and roll call.

The convention was welcomed by Mayor Lloyd L. Turner with a response by James L. Turnbull, Sioux Falls, S. D., first vice president. Newell F. Guernsey, president of the Iowa State Association introduced officers and guests, followed by reading of minutes and roll call.

The convention was welcomed by Mayor Lloyd L. Turner with a response by James L. Turnbull, Sioux Falls, S. D., first vice president. Newell F. Guernsey, president of the Iowa State Association introduced officers and guests, followed by reading of minutes and roll call.

The convention was welcomed by Mayor Lloyd L. Turner with a response by James L. Turnbull, Sioux Falls, S. D., first vice president. Newell F. Guernsey, president of the Iowa State Association introduced officers and guests, followed by reading of minutes and roll call.

The convention was welcomed by Mayor Lloyd L. Turner with a response by James L. Turnbull, Sioux Falls, S. D., first vice president. Newell F. Guernsey, president of the Iowa State Association introduced officers and guests, followed by reading of minutes and roll call.

The convention was welcomed by Mayor Lloyd L. Turner with a response by James L. Turnbull, Sioux Falls, S. D., first vice president. Newell F. Guernsey, president of the Iowa State Association introduced officers and guests, followed by reading of minutes and roll call.

The convention was welcomed by Mayor Lloyd L. Turner with a response by James L. Turnbull, Sioux Falls, S. D., first vice president. Newell F. Guernsey, president of the Iowa State Association introduced officers and guests, followed by reading of minutes and roll call.

The convention was welcomed by Mayor Lloyd L. Turner with a response by James L. Turnbull, Sioux Falls, S. D., first vice president. Newell F. Guernsey, president of the Iowa State Association introduced officers and guests, followed by reading of minutes and roll call.

The convention was welcomed by Mayor Lloyd L. Turner with a response by James L. Turnbull, Sioux Falls, S. D., first vice president. Newell F. Guernsey, president of the Iowa State Association introduced officers and guests, followed by reading of minutes and roll call.

The convention was welcomed by Mayor Lloyd L. Turner with a response by James L. Turnbull, Sioux Falls, S. D., first vice president. Newell F. Guernsey, president of the Iowa State Association introduced officers and guests, followed by reading of minutes and roll call.

The convention was welcomed by Mayor Lloyd L. Turner with a response by James L. Turnbull, Sioux Falls, S. D., first vice president. Newell F. Guernsey, president of the Iowa State Association introduced officers and guests, followed by reading of minutes and roll call.

The convention was welcomed by Mayor Lloyd L. Turner with a response by James L. Turnbull, Sioux Falls, S. D., first vice president. Newell F. Guernsey, president of the Iowa State Association introduced officers and guests, followed by reading of minutes and roll call.

The convention was welcomed by Mayor Lloyd L. Turner with a response by James L. Turnbull, Sioux Falls, S. D., first vice president. Newell F. Guernsey, president of the Iowa State Association introduced officers and guests, followed by reading of minutes and roll call.

The convention was welcomed by Mayor Lloyd L. Turner with a response by James L. Turnbull, Sioux Falls, S. D., first vice president. Newell F. Guernsey, president of the Iowa State Association introduced officers and guests, followed by reading of minutes and roll call.

The convention was welcomed by Mayor Lloyd L. Turner with a response by James L. Turnbull, Sioux Falls, S. D., first vice president. Newell F. Guernsey, president of the Iowa State Association introduced officers and guests, followed by reading of minutes and roll call.

The convention was welcomed by Mayor Lloyd L. Turner with a response by James L. Turnbull, Sioux Falls, S. D., first vice president. Newell F. Guernsey, president of the Iowa State Association introduced officers and guests, followed by reading of minutes and roll call.

The convention was welcomed by Mayor Lloyd L. Turner with a response by James L. Turnbull, Sioux Falls, S. D., first vice president. Newell F. Guernsey, president of the Iowa State Association introduced officers and guests, followed by reading of minutes and roll call.

The convention was welcomed by Mayor Lloyd L. Turner with a response by James L. Turnbull, Sioux Falls, S. D., first vice president. Newell F. Guernsey, president of the Iowa State Association introduced officers and guests, followed by reading of minutes and roll call.

The convention was welcomed by Mayor Lloyd L. Turner with a response by James L. Turnbull, Sioux Falls, S. D., first vice president. Newell F. Guernsey, president of the Iowa State Association introduced officers and guests, followed by reading of minutes and roll call.

The convention was welcomed by Mayor Lloyd L. Turner with a response by James L. Turnbull, Sioux Falls, S. D., first vice president. Newell F. Guernsey, president of the Iowa State Association introduced officers and guests, followed by reading of minutes and roll call.

The convention was welcomed by Mayor Lloyd L. Turner with a response by James L. Turnbull, Sioux Falls, S. D., first vice president. Newell F. Guernsey, president of the Iowa State Association introduced officers and guests, followed by reading of minutes and roll call.

Falls Road, Red Cross Hit

Thefts From Drug Stores Net Thieves $680 Cash

Waterloo police are investigating a series of thefts at business places. In two instances the mode of operation was similar and netted a total of $680.

Within the last three to four days $190 in cash was taken from a drawer in the Falls Road Drug Co. at 2027 Falls Ave. sometime during business hours. Store officials said the money had been kept there, but no one had had occasion to check until Friday when it was reported missing.

Theft at Red Cross Drug
At the Red Cross Drug, 620 Sycamore St., someone lifted a money bag containing about $490 cash and checks from a drawer during business hours sometime Friday.

May's Drug Store at Logan
At the May's Drug Store at Logan Plaza had the front door knocked out early yesterday but nothing apparently was missing, store officials told police.

Theft at Cafe
At the Little K Cafe, 523 Saxon, a portable radio and a small amount of change was taken when thieves kicked the front door open. Entry was discovered about 5:20 a.m. yesterday.

Scully Pharmacy at 919 Independence Ave. was entered when the front door glass was knocked out. A small money box with an undetermined amount of money was missing. The break in was discovered at 6:04 a.m. yesterday.

No entry was gained at Babcock Paint Co., 743 Logan Ave., early yesterday but glass in the door was broken although the persons involved couldn't get the door open.

The Wright Tree Service reported the lock pried off a building they rent at the Cattle Congress grounds, but nothing was apparently taken from the building.

Expensive Baby Buggy Stolen
Theft of a baby buggy valued at $250 was reported by Jack Tromanhauser of Tromanhauser Auction Co., 3244 Airline Highway.

That's an expensive buggy, but Tromanhauser told police it was an antique and was taken sometime Friday.

The "Operation Beautification" group which has been working in Waterloo on the weekends will assist with clean-up today in Charles City. The group, sponsored by the Jesse Cosby Neighborhood Center, also worked yesterday in Charles City.

The convention was welcomed by Mayor Lloyd L. Turner with a response by James L. Turnbull, Sioux Falls, S. D., first vice president. Newell F. Guernsey, president of the Iowa State Association introduced officers and guests, followed by reading of minutes and roll call.

The convention was welcomed by Mayor Lloyd L. Turner with a response by James L. Turnbull, Sioux Falls, S. D., first vice president. Newell F. Guernsey, president of the Iowa State Association introduced officers and guests, followed by reading of minutes and roll call.

The convention was welcomed by Mayor Lloyd L. Turner with a response by James L. Turnbull, Sioux Falls, S. D., first vice president. Newell F. Guernsey, president of the Iowa State Association introduced officers and guests, followed by reading of minutes and roll call.

The convention was welcomed by Mayor Lloyd L. Turner with a response by James L. Turnbull, Sioux Falls, S. D., first vice president. Newell F. Guernsey, president of the Iowa State Association introduced officers and guests, followed by reading of minutes and roll call.

The convention was welcomed by Mayor Lloyd L. Turner with a response by James L. Turnbull, Sioux Falls, S. D., first vice president. Newell F. Guernsey, president of the Iowa State Association introduced officers and guests, followed by reading of minutes and roll call.

The convention was welcomed by Mayor Lloyd L. Turner with a response by James L. Turnbull, Sioux Falls, S. D., first vice president. Newell F. Guernsey, president of the Iowa State Association introduced officers and guests, followed by reading of minutes and roll call.

The convention was welcomed by Mayor Lloyd L. Turner with a response by James L. Turnbull, Sioux Falls, S. D., first vice president. Newell F. Guernsey, president of the Iowa State Association introduced officers and guests, followed by reading of minutes and roll call.

The convention was welcomed by Mayor Lloyd L. Turner with a response by James L. Turnbull, Sioux Falls, S. D., first vice president. Newell F. Guernsey, president of the Iowa State Association introduced officers and guests, followed by reading of minutes and roll call.

The convention was welcomed by Mayor Lloyd L. Turner with a response by James L. Turnbull, Sioux Falls, S. D., first vice president. Newell F. Guernsey, president of the Iowa State Association introduced officers and guests, followed by reading of minutes and roll call.

The convention was welcomed by Mayor Lloyd L. Turner with a response by James L. Turnbull, Sioux Falls, S. D., first vice president. Newell F. Guernsey, president of the Iowa State Association introduced officers and guests, followed by reading of minutes and roll call.

The convention was welcomed by Mayor Lloyd L. Turner with a response by James L. Turnbull, Sioux Falls, S. D., first vice president. Newell F. Guernsey, president of the Iowa State Association introduced officers and guests, followed by reading of minutes and roll call.

The convention was welcomed by Mayor Lloyd L. Turner with a response by James L. Turnbull, Sioux Falls, S. D., first vice president. Newell F. Guernsey, president of the Iowa State Association introduced officers and guests, followed by reading of minutes and roll call.

The convention was welcomed by Mayor Lloyd L. Turner with a response by James L. Turnbull, Sioux Falls, S. D., first vice president. Newell F. Guernsey, president of the Iowa State Association introduced officers and guests, followed by reading of minutes and roll call.

The convention was welcomed by Mayor Lloyd L. Turner with a response by James L. Turnbull, Sioux Falls, S. D., first vice president. Newell F. Guernsey, president of the Iowa State Association introduced officers and guests, followed by reading of minutes and roll call.

The convention was welcomed by Mayor Lloyd L. Turner with a response by James L. Turnbull, Sioux Falls, S. D., first vice president. Newell F. Guernsey, president of the Iowa State Association introduced officers and guests, followed by reading of minutes and roll call.

The convention was welcomed by Mayor Lloyd L. Turner with a response by James L. Turnbull, Sioux Falls, S. D., first vice president. Newell F. Guernsey, president of the Iowa State Association introduced officers and guests, followed by reading of minutes and roll call.

The convention was welcomed by Mayor Lloyd L. Turner with a response by James L. Turnbull, Sioux Falls, S. D., first vice president. Newell F. Guernsey, president of the Iowa State Association introduced officers and guests, followed by reading of minutes and roll call.

The convention was welcomed by Mayor Lloyd L. Turner with a response by James L. Turnbull, Sioux Falls, S. D., first vice president. Newell F. Guernsey, president of the Iowa State Association introduced officers and guests, followed by reading of minutes and roll call.

The convention was welcomed by Mayor Lloyd L. Turner with a response by James L. Turnbull, Sioux Falls, S. D., first vice president. Newell F. Guernsey, president of the Iowa State Association introduced officers and guests, followed by reading of minutes and roll call.

The convention was welcomed by Mayor Lloyd L. Turner with a response by James L. Turnbull, Sioux Falls, S. D., first vice president. Newell F. Guernsey, president of the Iowa State Association introduced officers and guests, followed by reading of minutes and roll call.

The convention was welcomed by Mayor Lloyd L. Turner with a response by James L. Turnbull, Sioux Falls, S. D., first vice president. Newell F. Guernsey, president of the Iowa State Association introduced officers and guests, followed by reading of minutes and roll call.

The convention was welcomed by Mayor Lloyd L. Turner with a response by James L. Turnbull, Sioux Falls, S. D., first vice president. Newell F. Guernsey, president of the Iowa State Association introduced officers and guests, followed by reading of minutes and roll call.

The convention was welcomed by Mayor Lloyd L. Turner with a response by James L. Turnbull, Sioux Falls, S. D., first vice president. Newell F. Guernsey, president of the Iowa State Association introduced officers and guests, followed by reading of minutes and roll call.

The convention was welcomed by Mayor Lloyd L. Turner with a response by James L. Turnbull, Sioux Falls, S. D., first vice president. Newell F. Guernsey, president of the Iowa State Association introduced officers and guests, followed by reading of minutes and roll call.

Bond

(Continued)

cluding two years for acquisition of property and a year for development.

Development Costs

Estimated development costs are:

Six tennis and basketball courts — $67,672.

Three softball fields and a baseball diamond — $85,600.

Regulation track and football field — $68,280.

Playground — $28,400.

Locker room, dressing room building — $192,000.

Off-street parking — $123,580.

Off-street parking No. 2 — $143,300.

Fountain and plaza — $27,900.

Churches Would Stay

Three churches located in the development area — Christ Episcopal, Grace Methodist, and First Lutheran — would remain.

More than 200 families and 60 individuals would be displaced by the development.

About 80 per cent of the displaced residents are white; the application said. Of 209 families to be displaced, 163 are white and 41 non-white. Of 60 individuals, 48 are white and 12 non-white.

Relocation payments are expected to cost $105,661.25.

Brice, Petrides and Associates, Inc., drew the plans for the campus development for Urban Renewal and the school board.

Urban Renewal Administrator George Griebenow says more than 1,600 signatures on petitions supporting the development will be presented to the city council tomorrow night.

A Tuesday press conference is scheduled at the School Administration Building to release details of the proposal.

According to Griebenow, Park Director Leonard Katoski is in agreement with the plan.

No other parks are located in the vicinity of East High School.

Officers of the newly organized Northeast Iowa Association are Frank Kneeland, president; S. J. Cavatson and Charles Smith, vice-presidents and Elwyn Rice, secretary-treasurer.

Included in the list of newly chartered members of the association are: Robert W. Noonan, Luther E. Burkett, Dean Warda, Ernest Schauer, Thomas Habel, William Dessel, Jerry Trimble, Lloyd E. Magee, J. V. Wallace, Larry R. Van Syoc, Lowell T. Brown, William E. Steely, Orin E. Buck, C. Richard Rugg, Wally Lessman, Arnold Brockman, George Rausch, Ross Blow, Jack W. Kaphamer, Clarence Kluckholm and Kenneth Sloan.

A charge of assault and battery was dismissed against James Hoosman, 29, of 428 South View Dr., in municipal court Friday. Assistant County Attorney Arthur Andrews asked the charge be dismissed as the complaining witness failed to appear. She is Linda Mae Thompson, 20, who gave an address of 112 Parker St. She charged that on March 25 Hoosman hit her in the face during an argument.

Maximum penalty to the charge is $200 fine or one year imprisonment.

If you didn't read it in the Daily Courier, it didn't happen!

WE'RE OPEN TODAY
1 P.M. to 6 P.M.
BRING THE FAMILY TO
Allen's Hobby and Raceway Center
1219 WASHINGTON

"ONE HOUR" CLEANERS
SPECIALS MON.-TUES.-WED., MAY 20, 21, 22

Ladies' or Men's Plain or Two-Pc. Top or Car

SUITS • DRESSES • COATS
superbly drycleaned and carefully hand-pressed

No Limit
Furs, suedes and formals excluded, pleats extra. Matching 2-pc. suits and dresses count as one garment. Impeccable, professional workmanship. Regularly $1.60 each.

2' for $1.69

5 SHIRTS $1
immaculately laundered and pressed, smooth as silk

FREE Box Storage on Your Winter Clothes. $250 Insured Value Free. Pay price of cleaning when you pick them up.

4 — LOCATIONS — 4
ONE HOUR MARTINIZING

• 118 E. 5th — "Across from East Side Parking Ramp"

• 1916 Mitchell — "Across from Gil's Super-Valu"

CONTINENTAL CLEANERS

• 407 Main St., Cedar Falls

• 2223 College St., Cedar Falls

Drive Out and See

ELMWOOD CEMETERY

"Proudly Serving Waterloo Since 1853"

MANY CHOICE BURIAL LOTS AVAILABLE

Purchase YOUR cemetery lot NOW! The time for a man and wife to invest in a cemetery lot is BEFORE the time of need and sorrow.

See the New Section "GARDEN OF PEACE" OVER 3,000 SELECT LOTS AVAILABLE

A Complete Selection of GRANITE MEMORIALS
May Our Representative Show You.
No Obligation — Dial 232-2348

Elmwood Cemetery